

Education

The Zschokke House is the perfect place for bringing together educational and recreational activities. The cosy chalet is equipped with a complete infrastructure for seminars, colloquia, presentations and the like. All technical facilities for audio-visual inputs and paper writing are available, including internet access, TV, and radio. The spacious dining room is well-suited for seminar sessions. A separate meeting room with a PC is available. This makes the Zschokke House an ideal place for educational meetings, engaging discussions, or creative forums. Far away from the bustle of everyday life, the house and its beautiful surroundings encourage focused work. Fantastic hiking tours and other sports activities help you recharge your batteries.

Recreation

The idyllically situated Zschokke House stands on Gerschni Alp at the foot of Mt. Titlis, right in the beautiful skiing and hiking resort of Engelberg (1262 m / 4140 ft). The house is located far away from the usual tourist bustle, yet you have quick access to the Gerschni Alp cablecar nearby. This makes the Zschokke House an ideal starting point for various summer and winter activities. The spacious chalet has two lounges and a wide terrace. Barbecue facilities and sunbeds are available outside.

A cablecar takes you to Zschokke House and also further up to Mt. Titlis and Lake Trübsee-Titlis. The house is a good point of departure for hiking tours and other sports activities. A cross-country skiing trail runs at close distance. Alpine air, exercise, sunbathing, campfires, good food, and undisturbed sleep are what Zschokke House stands for.

... in short

- good transport connections
- quiet location
- well-maintained kitchen (full and half board)
- high-quality atmosphere
- accomodation for up to 50 persons (min. 15 persons)
- dormitories (8 beds) and separate bedrooms for event leaders
- rentable all year

Sports activities

Bungee jumping, snow hiking, canyoning, or cross-country skiing – the region around Engelberg offers all kinds of activities throughout the year. Sport fans of all levels are welcome: beginners and professionals, as well as adventurous and less adventurous folks alike. The wide range of alpine sports offered will even get the less active ones out and moving. No mountain sports for you? – tennis, golfing and swimming are available, too.

Traditionally, the Zschokke House has hosted the university's sports courses. But why not combine them with a seminar or some other form of educational event? Or book courses offered by local organisers in Engelberg.

... in short

- sports activities all year
- hiking routes and skiing slopes at close distance
- additional events offered by local organisers

... Unisport Basel

For members of the University special courses are available both in summer- and in wintertime. Zschokke House is a starting point for:

- several sports classes in Engelberg and surroundings
- courses for beginners and advanced levels
